

STEPS TO PUNISH THE BEEF TRUST

The Federal Attorneys Get
New and Important Evidence Against It.

AVERTMENT OF BILL

Government Officials Hold a Conference in Chicago, and Report Progress.

ARE OUT FOR BLOOD

Chicago, April 28.—Special attorney and United States district attorney Betha continued today his work to prepare for making war on the beef trust. There are no new indications and bill of injunction will be filed this week.

Contrary to expectations the federal officers will not ask for immediate relief. It may be ninety days before the injunction is issued at all. Instead of asking for a temporary restraining order a permanent injunction will be applied for, going through the usual routine. It would be at least three months before a decision is reached by the court and by this time the grass cattle will have come into the market, relieving the present situation and forcing a natural reduction of prices.

Avertments of the bill

Chicago, April 28.—New and important evidence against the packers charged with being members of an illegal combine to maintain the prices of beef was brought to the attention of United States Attorney Betha and Special Attorney Day yesterday.

While the exact nature of this evidence was kept secret it was of sufficient importance to bring Attorneys Day and Betha together in a conference at the Chicago club which lasted all the afternoon.

Besides the two attorneys a corps of assistants and stenographers was present.
At the conclusion of the conference both attorneys refused to make any statement in regard to the new evidence presented to them or to throw any light on the results of the conference.

Many Submit Evidence
It is said that since Attorney Day arrived in Chicago and it became generally known that the federal officials were preparing to bring their injunction proceedings, many offers of valuable assistance in the way of evidence and documentary proof of the alleged illegal methods of the packers having been received.

The evidence discovered yesterday is understood to comprise a statement of a former stenographer and private secretary of the head of one of the larger local packing firms. The witness is no longer connected with the packing firm, it is said, and is willing to furnish all the assistance in his power to the federal authorities.

Forecast of the Allegations

The bill for an injunction, when finally drafted and presented to Judge Kohlsaat will contain among others the following allegations:

That an agreement exists for the control of the beef trade.

That the agreement is to raise and lower prices of beef at will.

That the combine in its effects throttles competition. That it fixes prices without regard to the supply and demand.

That it maintains a blacklisting system for retailers who do not obey its fixed rules.

That the agreement provides for the perfect regulation and distribution of beef throughout the country without competition among themselves.

The prosecution of the federal case will depend at the outset almost entirely on the copies and letters of evidence of old employees already in the hands of Attorneys Betha and Day.

In the opinion of Attorney General Knox the evidence already secured in New York and Chicago is sufficient to maintain the action, but the federal authorities hope to strengthen their case by a drag-net investigation, in which the heads and managers of the leading packing firms will be subpoenaed into court.

New York to Play a Part

While the federal attorneys will center their efforts in Chicago, they admit that Attorney General Davies of New York has been furnished with a complete transcript of the evidence collected and that he will bring an action against the packers under the Donnelly anti-trust law of New York.
The law is similar to the Sherman anti-trust law.

In return the attorney general of New York has furnished the federal authorities with a copy of all the evidence collected by his office in New York city. It consists of documentary evidence tending to show the existence of an iron clad agreement to maintain prices of dressed beef and other meats and to apportion territory so as to avoid competition.

Strong and Yohe Return Home

New York, April 28.—Putnam Bradley Strong and May Yohe with whom he eloped from San Francisco some months ago, arrived here today from Italy. They refused to talk further than to say they were not going on the stage.

Joliet, April 28.—A buggy contain- ing Mrs. Michael Pullock and daughter, aged 20, Floyd Peace also twenty, was struck by a train last night.

All three were killed.

SETTLERS DECLARE WAR ON RANCHMEN

Kansas Farmers Backed by Rockefeller Will Drive Off Cowboys—Militia Is Called For.

Wichita, Kan., April 28.—Frank Rockefeller, the Standard Oil magnate is engaged in fighting Chauncey Dewey, the Chicago capitalist. The war is raging in western Kansas.
Rockefeller is aided by the farmers of Rawlins, Sherman and Cheyenne counties, while Dewey is backed by all the ranchmen and cowboys. The trouble has been brewing for several months. It started over the grass privileges, the farmers refusing to allow cattle men to use their pastures.
But the farmers have by main force gradually encroached upon the settlers until the latter have been almost afraid to sow their crops. The cowboys cut fences and allowed their herds to riot upon the new sown fields.

Recently Rockefeller acquired by mortgage 12,000 acres in Rawlins Co. near Atwood. It was surrounded by a 100,000-acre pasture owned by Dewey.
The latter wanted to buy, but the Standard Oil man refused to sell, and placed farmers thereon and demanded a wagon outlet.

Yesterday open warfare was declared. One hundred armed farmers ran out all of Dewey's cowboys. Rockefeller's men have purchased rifles and ammunition and are riding their fences. Governor Stanley has been appealed to to prevent rioting, and state militia will probably go there today.

GIRL ENJOYS HER*VIOLIN CAMPAIGN

Lotta Greenup, Who Is Trying to Play Her Father Into Congress, Relates Experiences.

Louisville, Ky., April 28.—Miss Lotta Greenup, who is aiding her father, George W. Greenup, in his race for congress in the First district by playing on the violin and singing ragtime songs, is in Louisville. She says her father will win his race.

"You see," said Miss Greenup, "I had been doing concert work for some time, so it was not hard for me to play before a crowd, but every time I gave them the best I had, and they were awfully kind to me.

"No one rushed up and kissed me or anything like that, as some of the newspapers made out, but they did shout and applaud and throw their hats in the air, all of which made me feel mighty good, of course.

"I want to go to Germany to study the violin. I have had offers, but I will not go on the concert stage until I feel capable of doing as well as I should like to do.

"I have quit counting my offers of marriage. One fellow out West wrote me to 'Come out to play the fiddle while he milks the cows.' He was sure that if I played they would give twice as much milk and then he would get rich in a short time.

"A law student wanted me to marry him so my magic would help him through college, and then his law would make us both comfortable."

PLAN GREAT ROAD*FOR THE SOUTH

John W. Gates Unfolds a Scheme for a Gigantic Combine in That Section.

Chicago, April 28.—A great railway system for the southern states that will equal the immense traffic lines of the Pennsylvania Railroad is the latest ambition of John W. Gates, the steel magnate and capitalist, who arrived home from New York City yesterday afternoon. There recent purchase in New York of Louisville and Nashville stock and the tremendous rush it caused are fresh in the memory of financiers. The deal of this syndicate, Mr. Gates admits, is only part of a plan of a trunk and branch system of railroad lines that will tap every part of the southern states. To complete this scheme the Gates syndicate is now endeavoring to get a controlling interest in the Chicago and Eastern Illinois road, as the Chicago and the proposed system. The Louisville and Nashville will be the link that will connect with the Southern railway.

ELECTRIC STORM*VISITS ST. JOSEPH

Torrent of Rain Followed by Heavy Hail Is Believed to Have Damaged the Fruit Beds.

St. Joseph, Mich., April 28.—One of the worst electric storms in the history of western Michigan visited this vicinity. Rain fell in torrents. A heavy hailstorm followed, and it is feared that fruit beds may be injured by being cut by the hail. The St. Joe river has been rising and threatens the bridges. Lightning struck the farm house of Edward Stewart, set it afire, and it was consumed. The cable wire of the Twin City Telephone company fell across the trolley wire of the local street railway, and as a result 300 telephones were burned out.
The plate glass front of a drug store at Coloma, Mich., was wrecked by the wind. While men were removing debris lightning struck the building, hurting D. B. Rollin and John Furman to the ground unconscious. The loss caused by the storm in Berrien county represents many thousand dollars.

FIASCO IN THE THIRD DISTRICT

The Refusal to Endorse La Follette Has Special Significance.

SIGNS OF DEFEAT

Dahle Trouble Making Serious Inroads Upon Strength of the Half Breeds.

FLIRT WITH LEITSCH

Madison, April 28.—The failure of the Third district congressional convention to adopt resolutions endorsing the governor had a significance.
While it is probably true that had resolutions endorsing the governor been introduced they would have been adopted, it is also equally true that the introduction of the resolutions would have meant a bitter battle and a vote so close that the LaFollette lieutenants though it best not to force the issue.

Strong LaFollette Ground

It must be remembered that this was a state of affairs occurring in the Third district—an old LaFollette stronghold, where in former years the very mention of opposition to the governor was considered almost treason. That sufficient stalwart sentiment had been worked up in this district to prevent a fight for an endorsement of the governor, which was desired, if it could be had without loss of prestige in securing it, shows at least that the stalwart fight in the Third district is not ended.

Even stalwart leaders admitted when interviewed that the governor would probably get the Third district with the possible exception of Juneau county, but coupled with this intimation came the statement that in every county there would be a fight and that this fight had been aided by the blocking of endorsement resolutions in the Third district convention. How much these resolutions were desired can also be realized by the fact that many of the governor's political friends, including several state employees, were in Lancaster Thursday for the sole purpose of pushing along the endorsement resolutions, and that they were bitterly disappointed over the finesse of Henry Casson and Harry Barney, which prevented their presentation.

Dahle Trouble Starting

Here the second condition which has arisen to combat Gov. LaFollette in the gubernatorial situation is regarded with even more apprehension than the Lancaster resolutions. The Washington dispatches announcing the disaffection of Congressman Dahle from the LaFollette standard, and the discharge by Dahle of his private secretary was the medium by which the Milwaukee Free Press, the Milwaukee administration organ, was added in maintaining a Washington correspondent by occupation of an official position has caused concern among the LaFollette people here and it is believed that efforts will be made to get matters cleared.

That Dahle believes the governor has been favoring the Congressional aspirants of William C. Leitsch of Columbia county there is little doubt.
The story has caused great interest and many feel it may be very potent influence in determining results unless an adjustment is made soon.

Flirted With Leitsch

It is without doubt true that close political friends of the administration have been flirting more or less with "Billy" Leitsch of Columbia, and encouraging him in his congressional aspirations. Just what was to come of any flirtation with Leitsch by those forces is somewhat of a conundrum, as friends of the governor say he can carry Columbia county anyway, and that as far as Leitsch is concerned he is not a particularly political heavyweight in that county. Mr. Leitsch was quite recently a democrat who was flattered into the republican party through a Gold democratic sleve.

FITZ SIMONS' STAFF QUILTS

Adjutant General Smith Accepts Resignation of His Predecessor's Aide.

Springfield, Ill., April 28.—Adjutant General Smith has entered an order accepting the resignations of members of the staff of former Brig. Gen. Chas.
Fitz Simons of Chicago, First Brigade, I. N. G.

Found on the River Bank

Marion, Ind., April 28.—Bert Keck, superintendent of the telephone company, was found on the river bank in an unconscious condition. The affair is shrouded in mystery.

Fatal Duel at Muncie

Muncie, Ind., April 28.—J. L. Tartar was shot fatally and Harry Kern was wounded slightly in a pistol duel at Whiteley, a suburb of the city. The fight was the result of a quarrel which had been started previously in a gambling house.

Fear Trade Invasion by Americans

Berlin, April 28.—The Lokal An-zeiger, in an article on the Atlantic shipping merger, expresses the universal alarm in Germany over what it calls the encroachments of American enterprise.

CLOSE OF THE WAR IN SAMAR

Guevarra and His Command Brought to the Coast as Captives.

NATIVES GIVE UP

An Important Surrender to Americans in the Island of Negros.

PEACE NOW IN SIGHT

Manila, April 27.—General Frederick D. Grant's expedition in the gunboats Baseo and Florida, several steam launches and native lighters has ascended the Gandara river, in the island of Samar, and has brought the insurgent leader, Guevarra, and his entire command down to the coast.
Guevarra's force consists of Rafael Sebastian, Anaki and thirty-eight other ojeros, 189 men and 161 rifles.

Three hundred insurgents, with 131 rifles, are expected to arrive at Cat-balogan, Samar, today to surrender formally to the American authorities.

Three hundred bolomen, twenty-eight of them armed with rifles, surrendered yesterday at Sulat, also in Samar.

Guevarra succeeded General Luck-ban to the command of the insurgent forces in Samar, when the latter was captured last February. He announced his intention to surrender last March.

Casualties of the War

April 28.—With the surrender of Guevarra to General Grant the war department officials believe that the most serious portion of the army's work in the Philippines is over unless the trouble with the Moros should increase in subduing Taglas insurrection. According to the official figures the United States has employed 3,447 officers and 108,800 enlisted men, of these 649 men and 50 officers were killed in action, twelve officers and 205 men died of wounds and thirty officers and 211 men died of disease.

RUSSIAN PEASANTS*IN OPEN REVOLT

Provinces of Poltava and Kharkoff Are Terrorized—80 Estates Sacked—Fear of Czar.

St. Petersburg, April 28.—Eighteen thousand peasants in the provinces of Kharkoff and Poltava are in revolt. Already eighty estates have been sacked and everything destroyed that could not be carried away.

The Duke of Mecklenburg's estate at Karlovka was sacked because the steward who was charged with distributing relief appropriated part of the money and pocketed the balance of a reduction of rent that the Duke had conceded to his tenants.

The whole region is terrorized and land owners and stewards are fleeing for safety. The fear is increasing that Kharkoff and other towns will be attacked. Some of the authorities are showing weakness and pusillanimity, while others are cruelly vig-ilant and are causing wholesale floggings of persons arrested.

The agitation at Moscow is so serious that the Czar has relinquished his intention of spending the Russian Easter there. The ministers, including M. de Witte, the Minister of Finance, continue to receive letters threatening them with death.

'VARSITY WELCOME*TO BASE BALL TEAM

State School Believes It Has a Combination This Year That is a Permanent Winner.

Madison, Wis., April 27.—The base ball team returned Saturday night from their trip and were met at the depot by a large number of students.
It is the first time in a number of years that appearances have gone to show that Wisconsin will have a permanent winning team. They did not lose any games on their trip and from all indications they would stand at the best of chances for the intercollegiate championship. This fact was taken advantage of by about four hundred students who met the team at the train and conducted them to the lower campus where a large bonfire was soon built and members of the team called upon for speeches. There has not been such base ball enthusiasm in Madison for years as there is here now.

New York, April 28.—Archbishop

Corrigan, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia, is slowly convalescing. His physicians stated this morning that all the symptoms were favorable.

Money for Cuban Mission

Louisville, April 28.—At the session of the board of church extension of the M. E. church south $25,000 was loaned to the board of foreign missions in Havana and Santa Clara, Cuba.

Find Skeleton of Indian Victim

Flora, Ind., April 28.—Workmen unearthed a skeleton, which is said by old citizens to be that of James Row-hart, who in 1843 was chased by Indians and perished in a quagmire.

MRS. PALMER'S BOOM COLDLY RECEIVED

Woman's Federation of Clubs Want a Worker, Not a Social Figurehead—Blacks Not Wanted.

Dodge City, Kansas, April 28.—The delegates to the biennial, who are enroute to Los Angeles, Cal., spent Sunday in discussing candidates for president of the general federation. Mrs.
F. K. Bowes, of Chicago started a boom for Mrs. Potter Palmer. Mrs.
Bowes declared it was time women honored Mrs. Palmer, who had won international recognition. She said men had paid tribute to Mrs. Palmer's superior ability as a leader and the last opportunity offered for the clubs to recognize a typical American woman. The boom was launched enthusiastically. But it was received with general coldness. The club women said they wanted a worker, not a social figurehead.

Mrs. Bowes was dismayed and unless Mrs. Palmer forbids the use of her name it will be put up before the convention. Wisconsin delegates are much interested in Mrs. Charles S.
Morris as a presidential candidate, although it is not known whether Mrs.
Morris will consent to be one of the nominees. It is believed Mrs. Morris can obtain support from Illinois and Michigan.

The Wisconsin delegates expect to go into the convention with a large representation as more than forty club women of the state are now on their way to the coast. Wisconsin will not take a stand on the color question until there is a chance to vote, but it is known that the delegates will oppose the admission of colored women.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR*TRANSFER OF CUBA

Secretary Root Says It Will Be Turned Over on May 20 Without Any Reserve.

Miami, April 28.—The handsome government yacht Kanawha, having on board the Secretary of War, wife and daughter, reached here last evening direct from Cuba. Secretary Root said:

"I went to Cuba for the purpose of arranging for the transfer of the island, which takes place on May 20, outside of which my mission had no significance. The transfer will be absolute. Seven artillery companies, in all about 800 guns, will, however, remain in charge of such guns, ammunition, etc., as will be retained in Cuba and which are ultimately intended for the United States naval stations, to be arranged for by treaty when the Cuban government is fairly launched.
The troops will be stationed at Havana, Santiago and Cienfuegos."

The secretary says that no claim has been made by the United States for settlement of the enormous sums expended in obtaining freedom for Cuba, but that the matter will be taken up when the Cuban government is in running order.

The secretary and party leave in the morning for Washington.

PINGREE ON THE STAND*IN DETROIT BANK CASE

Says Vice President Andrews Told Him to Resign if He Wanted the Institution to Go Down.

Detroit, Mich., April 28.—Frank C.
Pingree, president of the wrecked City Savings Bank, was called to the witness stand at the examination of Frank C. and Henry R. Andrews, vice president and cashier of the bank, who are charged with causing its ruin. Pingree testified that last July the directors discovered that the bank was holding some of Frank C. Andrews' paper which they had not approved. Pingree said that he talked the discovery over with Frank C. Andrews and told him that if the bank was going to be robbed he (Pingree) did not want to have anything to do with it and would resign.

"Andrews," said Pingree, "said he would not take the presidency if I would resign. He added that if I resigned he would and if I wanted the bank to go down all I had to do was to resign."

After a heated argument Andrews finally agreed to sell his real estate and straighten out the affairs. Pingree said that Andrews told him they could sell the City Savings Bank by fall, as there were two banks that wanted to buy it.

Irish Emigrants for America

London, April 28.—Emigration from the west of Ireland to America is assuming what is called "alarming proportions." During the last fortnight hundreds of emigrants passed through Limerick on their way to Cork. Two special trains from Port Arlington carried nearly 1,800 emigrants, mostly young persons of both sexes, while other lots of 200 or more had gone on board the steamer.

Death Due to Tight Corsets

Lorain, Ohio, April 28.—Frankie Friend, aged 27 years, of Norfolk, got off a car from Cleveland and became faint and weak. She was assisted to the waiting room by two women and later sent to a physician's office. She was dead when placed on a couch. A post-mortem showed her heart to be entirely out of place on account of her corset, which was ten sizes too small.

Hello, April 28.—The queen passed a very quiet night and her physicians announced that she is free from fever this morning.

DEATH COMES TO J. S. MORTON

Ex-Secretary of Agriculture Passed Away at Lake Forest, Ill.

LED ACTIVE LIFE

He Considered the Founding of Arbor Day His Proud-est Public Achievement.

NEBRASKA MOURNS

Chicago, April 28.—J. Sterling Morton, of Nebraska, Secretary of Agriculture under President Cleveland, and founder of Arbor Day, died at the home of his son, Mark Morton at Lake Forest, Ill., yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. He had just rounded out his seventieth year. At his bedside were his three sons, Paul Morton, second vice president of the At-chafon, Topelka and Santa Fe railway company, and Joy and Mark Morton, of Joy Morton & Co., with their families.

Mr. Morton had been in poor health for more than a year. The death of his youngest son, Carl Morton at Waukegan, last January, was a great blow to him, and it is said that he never recovered from it.

Opposed Bryan in Nebraska

Since his retirement of secretary of agriculture in 1897 Mr. Morton had remained in private life, but had been a strong influence in both state and national politics. He was a staunch member of the gold wing of the democratic party and refused to follow the lead of William Jennings Bryan and the Chicago and Kansas City platforms. After returning to his Nebraska home from Washington he established a weekly paper called the Conservative, in which he discussed the politics of the day and current events. This paper had a wide circulation, and with it Mr. Morton supported McKinley for president in both of his campaigns.

In state as well as national politics Mr. Morton and Mr. Bryan were strongly opposed to each other.

Arbor Day His Monument

The achievement of which Mr.
Morton was proudest was his founding of Arbor Day, which is observed each year on April 22 throughout the country with the planting of trees. It has converted vast stretches of bar-ren western prairie into spots of beauty and comfort. Since its start in Nebraska in 1872 it is said that more than 13,000,000,000 trees have been planted in that state alone.
His constant motto was: "Plant trees."

in public life. In 1858 President Buchanan appointed him secretary of governor W. A. Richardson. His term expired in 1861. Four different times since he has headed the dem-

SERVICES AT THE CHURCHES SUNDAY

REV. VAUGHAN ON SECTARIANISM AND CHURCH UNION.

An Address by Rev. Mr. Churm of the First Methodist Church—Close of the Revival Meeting Led by Rev. Mr. Baskerville at the Court Street M. E. Church.

At the evening service in the Baptist church yesterday the Rev. Richard M. Vaughan preached on "Sectarianism and Church Union." He spoke in part as follows: These church at Corinth had ranged itself into four sects calling themselves by the names of Paul, Apollos, Peter and Christ. Broadly speaking the first two were liberal, the last two conservative. The church today has broken into many parts. In the Catholic section is Greek, Roman and Anglican. In the Protestant is Lutheran and Reformed. The last term includes, together with the Arminian revolt from Calvinism, the denominations with which we are most familiar. Altogether they are probably a hundred and fifty Christian sects. These sects repeat the contentions at Corinth. Some assume to be exclusively the church. It reminds one of the Scotch lady and her husband: "We're a' that's left of the gude auld kirk of Scotland, just me and John. And Sir, I'm not so sure o' John." One approves the sentiment of Frederick W. Robertson, the great Episcopalian preacher, "High churchism, I hate. High churchmen, many of them, I love, admire and sympathize with." High churchism is equally hateful whether it appears as Baptist landmarkism, church of England, Oxford movement, or Roman ultramontaniam.

Where is the explanation of these sects? The fact that Judaism, Mohammedanism and all religions have sects indicates causes wide as human nature. In point of fact there are valid distinctions in human nature certain to express themselves in parties. Everywhere in society there is the radical and the conservative. Both are needed, the first to pull the chariot, the second to put on brakes and save from a smash-up. Viewed from another point of view the one emphasizes freedom, independence; the other authority, obedience. We have also those who love the ornate and those who love the simple. These distinctions, in all religions, show themselves in parties more or less clearly. It is utterly folly then to suppose that all men can be compressed into one ecclesiastical mould. The higher unities are always unities in complexities. To attempt a monotonous uniformity is to go in the face of the nature of things.

The explanation of the sects must take account also of the sins of human nature. These are intolerance and ambition. They do not belong exclusively to the outshoots from the original churches. Frequently conditions in the historic church made new movements absolutely necessary. Often it was expulsion, not secession. The heirs of the Reformation, the heirs of dissent have no syllable of apology to utter. They glory in the fidelity of their fathers to those principles which have so largely made the American Republic and modern civilization. But the practical question concerns itself with remedy.

Many earnest souls are occupied with the thought of church union. We have Grindelwald conferences, papal encyclicals, Lambeth articles. Some of the proposals are as simple as they are impossible. There is to be a union of the lion and the lamb, only the lamb is invited by the lion to come inside. We have in Paul's words to the Corinthian divisions the only basis of the church union. It is Jesus Christ as "one foundation." In other words the one test of Church fellowship is personal devotion to Jesus. So far as philosophies, theologues are concerned, Paul draws his pen through them and says, "The kingdom is not in word, but in power." It is life, not theory. They are valuable, but they lie wholly within the sphere of liberty.

What then is the duty of the hour? First, acquaintance. We ought to read the literature of other denominations as well as our own, get their point of view and learn tolerance. And as we get acquainted with their followers we will fall in love with many beautiful characters and desire some closer church fellowship. Second, federation. We can put a ban on that hideous thing, proselyting. We can mutually vacate and occupy fields and give churches in small places a chance at self support, self respect and aggressive effort. We can co-operate in many common enterprises. Third, union. The family groups must make beginnings. Let the Baptists of all stripes get together, also the Presbyterians and other bodies. Then we can take breath, for church union is not coming in a hurry. Then the Protestant bodies may coalesce. And last of all, centuries, perhaps, let us hope, Protestant and Catholic.

To the church of the future all present bodies will contribute. It will be better than any church now existing. And while we may not expect all the planets to be welded into one sun, we may expect those planets so to move in their cycles as to contribute a rhythmic, harmonious whole.

CLOSED REVIVAL SERVICES

Rev. Baskerville Preached His Final Sermon at Court Street Church. The Rev. Baskerville closed a series of meetings at Court street M. E. church last evening. The two Methodist churches united in the evening service, and the house was filled. Dr. Baskerville preached a very instructive and interesting sermon on the knowledge of salvation, and proved by conclusive argument that doers of the Word, and not hearers only, are the true disciples. The series of special meetings have been well attended by church people, but the series of meetings was a little disappointing in that it failed to reach non-church goes to any large extent. Dr. Baskerville usually works in Union meetings, where, all churches unite, and has been very successful. He goes from here to Monroe and has engagements that will keep him busy until the first of the year. He is a good preacher and an earnest Christian gentleman.

IN THE FIRST M. E. CHURCH

Sermon by Rev. James Churm From Book of Acts 16, 30 to 31. The Rev. James Churm of the First M. E. church delivered an eloquent sermon from his pulpit yesterday morning:

Book of Acts, 16 chapter, 30 and 31 verses. What Must I Do to Be Saved? And they said, believe on the Lord, Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved and thy house. The apostle Paul, lived in a perpetual revival, not only a few of the church should be awakened to this revival but the whole church. I believe it is possible in no other way; to get the greatest blessing is by constant prayer to God; Spurgeon, a poor man, wandered one day into a Methodist chapel, just outside of London, known as Newington, Butts, hearing a sermon from a mighty son of God, he was converted. Spurgeon was a man who preached to the common people and made famous through his great Metropolitan church in London, a building seating more than four thousand people; beginning as he did in a small chapel, his church is a perpetual revival and has been so for years. In Sydney, Australia a clergyman took charge of a large church but a small congregation, eighteen in number by going into the streets, bringing the people to him with a few of his faithful followers he was soon able to fill his church and to have an assistant. Paul lived in Macedonia. He went to the riverside one day and there met Lydia, a woman of Thyatira, a seller of purple, who dwelt in the city of Philippi in Macedonia; the first European convert of Paul. Paul and Silas, or Silvanus, were thrown into prison because they preached Repentance unto Salvation. The jailer seeing the steadfastness of these two servants of God; cried out "What shall I do to be Saved?" and Paul said unto him, "believe on the Lord, Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved. An estimate is given that 70 per cent. of the populace of Janesville are non-church goers; which would mean of the sixteen thousand population about four thousand five hundred may be found at church on the Lord's day. What must they do to be saved? Believe in the Lord, Jesus.

Imperial Band Dance. Saturday evening at the Imperial band dance an event occurred that was very pleasing to Al Kneff, the genial leader of the band. After the band made an announcement J. A. Hoffman called the popular leader to the platform and presented him with a $5 bill. To say that Al was surprised is putting it mild. The gift was from a friend who had greatly admired his work as leader of the band. During the remainder of the evening the notes from Al's cornet were sweeter than ever. The band dance at Assembly hall was the most largely attended of any of the series and was thoroughly enjoyed.

A CARD. We, the undersigned, do hereby agree to refund the money on a 50 cent bottle of Greene's Warranted Syrup of Tar if it fails to cure your cough or cold. We also guarantee a 25-cent bottle to prove satisfactory or money refunded. J. P. Baker, Geo. E. King & Co., Smith's Pharmacy, H. E. Ransom & Co., People's Drug Store, Janesville, Wis.

GROWTH OF THE CANNING INDUSTRY: VAST FIELD OPENED FOR GROWERS

It is Estimated That the Value of the Canned Goods in the United States Last Year Put Up by Factories Was $100,000,000.

The growth of the canning industry in the United States has kept pace with the other improvements in the business world, and is today one of the great business industries of the country; growing, thriving and becoming so world wide in its scope as to be recognized as one of the leading industries in this country. Twenty-five years ago this industry was in its infancy and its commercial standing is pronounced, millions of dollars being represented in buildings and equipment and the industry includes the canning of nearly everything eatable. In connection with the industry there is a vast field opened for the producer and grower. The canning of vegetables opens up a vast field for growers. In the vicinity of a cannery the growers are making good money from the raising of crops. Take for example the growing of tomatoes, corn and peas. From 300 to 500 bu. of tomatoes are ordinarily raised from one acre and these will make a return of from $60 to $100. Corn will run from three to five tons per acre in the husk, and this will bring from $12 to $20 per acre. Peas will return from $70 to $80 per acre, and string beans from $50 to $60 per acre. With such returns possible it will be readily seen what profits can be made and how any enterprising farming community would welcome a cannery in their midst and labor for the establishment of such an industry.

It is estimated that the value of the canned goods in the United States last year put up by factories was about $100,000,000. Of this amount probably one-third, or nearly that, was in meats, while the balance was in vegetables and fruits. There is no possible means of knowing just how many cans this would represent, but a rough estimate would probably place it at about $1,000,000,000 cans of all sizes, and this would amount in car loads at about 85,000 cars. There are in the neighborhood of

POTATOE SCAB DUE TO FUNGUS GROWTH

Use of Fresh Stable Manure Favors the Scab—Use of Formaldehyd Urged by Experiment Station.

Potato scab is due to the growth of a fungus upon the skin of the young potatoes. Like all of its kind, this fungus is propagated by spores. The spores may exist in the soil, or they may be planted with the seed potatoes. Potatoes are generally more or less infested with spores of the scab, even if they are not visibly affected with the disease, and scabby potatoes are sure to be infested with them.

Farmers are agreed that the use of fresh stable manure favors the scab. The manure does not produce the scab, but it favors the growth of it in the same way, perhaps, that it favors the growth of weeds or of potatoes. The tops of potatoes badly infested with scab are sure to be infested with spores and should be burned. If the manure, the soil, and the seed potatoes were free from the spores of the scab fungus, there could be no scab in the potato crop, no matter how much stable manure were used.

We have learned how to destroy the scab spores on seed potatoes without injuring the seed in any way. If seed potatoes, treated according to the following formula, are planted upon new land or upon land that has not produced potatoes for several years, and upon which only well composted manure is used, the crop should be practically free from scab.

The formula for the treatment is as follows: Before cutting the seed potatoes, soak them for an hour and a half in a solution made by adding one pound of formaldehyd to 30 gallons of water.

Formaldehyd is a liquid that may be purchased at drug stores. It costs about fifty cents per pound. It is not injurious to clothing, or the hands, hence potatoes soaked in it may be freely handled. They should not, however, be used for food or fed to stock.

If the seed potatoes are very dirty it is best to wash them before treating to the formaldehyd solution. If it becomes very dirty, it should be thrown away. Badly scabbed potatoes should be soaked one-half longer than the time named in the formula.

A limited quantity of seed potatoes may be treated in an ordinary barrel, placing the 30 gallons of the solution in this. A bushel or more potatoes may be put into a gunny sack and dropped into the solution. Farmers who plant a large acreage of potatoes may do well to construct a wood vat holding 100 gallons or more. A number of bushels of seed potatoes may be shoveled into this at one time, and scooped out with a slatted potato scoop.

BEEF

In the disposition of the rise in the retail price of beef allusion has been made to the increased consumption of beef in the United States. For the past six years there has been not only the normal increase of beef consumption through the increase in the population, but also a very large increase in the consumption of beef per capita. Americans beyond all other people are not only meat eaters, but "beef" eaters conspicuously. The rate per capita of meat consumption in a year is larger in the United States than in nearly every other country—a third larger than England, twice as large as France, two and a half times larger than Germany, Belgium or Denmark.

three times as large as Russia, and Ireland, and six times as large as Italy.

In England and Russia mutton is popular and is in general use, and for the former country, Australia, furnishes an almost inexhaustible source of supply, while Russia, with a home supply annually of more than 1,000,000,000 pounds, is not under the necessity of importing. Germany requires large amounts of veal and pork both popular in that country when beef is scarce or high, and France and Italy give preference to fowl, but in the United States the continuous demand is for beef ("beef! beef! beef!") and there is a visible increase in the demand when times are good, work general and the style and method of living improved.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

Tall, of commanding figure, sweet-voiced, and with an accurate knowledge of her art, Rose Coughlan sweeps upon the stage in "Forget Me Not" as Stephanie de Mohrlyart, mingling with the proudest of England's peers, prelates and dignitaries at a society function to go through three acts of a grim fight to maintain her position, using every weapon known to a desperate woman, displaying a marvellous power to depict the courage, will, tenacity and obstinacy of purpose such a man as Stephanie de Mohrlyart would require to fight off an exposure which meant social ostracism. Great as some of these intense dramatic scenes are, it is in the final disgrace and humiliation that come upon Stephanie that Rose Coughlan demonstrates her power. The company chosen by Jules Murry to interpret fashionable men and women comprises some of the most popular players in society dramas from New York, and the costuming of the ladies of the company is of the most elaborate and recherche type. Rose Coughlan and "Forget Me Not" will be at the Myers Grand on May 16.

The funny New England comedy, "Uncle Josh Sprucey," will be the big event at the Myers Grand in early part of May. This charming comedy drama is a series of "Uncle Josh" in making a visit to New York are, incidentally touched upon, the characters are all taken from Vermont rural life, and are true to nature, the play containing a mixture of pathos and humor. Special scenery is used to mount the different scenes, and the great saw mill scene in use in this production is the most realistic piece of mechanism ever presented. A solo operatic orchestra and two big bands are the musical features. A big parade is given at noon daily and the concert of popular music rendered by the combined bands is very popular and attracts large crowds.

Work of a Traction Engine.

Traction engines are considered work savers in threshing but it has been left to Gower Bros. to put this apparatus to a new purpose; on Friday a 23 ton car of coal was received at Tiffany on the C. & N. W. R. R. siding for the P. Rudolph dairy farm in the town of La Prairie, four and one-half miles away. Work was begun unloading at three o'clock in the afternoon and by eight o'clock the entire car load was transferred to the Rudolph farm. A string of wagons filled with coal were hitched behind the traction engine and twenty tons of the 23 were hauled at one time.

THOROUGHBREDS IN SECRET MEETING

It Was Decided That the Task of Carrying Rock County for La Follette Was a Hopeless One.

A secret meeting of the executive committee of the thoroughbred's was held in this city today for the purpose of fixing up their state throughout the county. A stormy debate was held on the question of whether they should support LaFollette or Spooner.

It was decided that the task of carrying Rock county for LaFollette was almost hopeless and that great effort would be necessary for them to make a showing in the convention. Some of the leaders that hold public offices made strong pleas for the administration and urged the others not to give up or they would certainly lose their jobs. The outcome of the campaign looks very dark to them just at present.

The County Committee at present is as follows:

Thomas S. Nolan—Chairman.
William A. Jackson—Secretary.
F. L. Clemons—Assistant Secretary.

W. W. Clarke—Treasurer.

Executive Committee—Thomas S. Nolan, William A. Jackson, W. W. Clarke, A. H. Sheldon, F. W. Gillman, W. W. Coon, U. G. Walte, L. H. Parker.

RUNAWAY TEAM FALLS INTO RIVER

Driven by a Woman, and the Wagon Was Loaded with Eggs and Other Farm Produce.

A pair of horses attached to a lumber wagon ran away down Cherry street Saturday afternoon and never stopped in their career until they went down the high bank bordering Western avenue into the river. The team was in charge of Mrs. Kettle when they started on their run and the wagon was loaded with eggs and other farm products.

Mrs. Kettle tried hard to stop the horses but her efforts had no effect on them. At the foot of Cherry St. they ran across Western avenue and collided with a telephone pole. The shock broke the harness and let the horses loose from the wagon. It also threw Mrs. Kettle out and scattered the farm products, eggs, butter and vegetables all over the neighborhood. The horses when they broke loose from the wagon kept on down the steep bank into the river and were soon mired in the water and mud.

It took the crowd that gathered about an hour to get the horses out of the river. About the only damage was a broken harness and a lot of smashed eggs. The woman was somewhat bruised but sustained no serious injury.

ANNUAL VISIT OF BISHOP NICHOLSON

Various Services Were Held Yesterday at Christ and Trinity Episcopal Churches.

The Rev. Bishop Nicholson made his annual visitation to Christ and Trinity church yesterday. He celebrated the Holy Eucharist at Christ church at 8:00 a. m., the rector acting as server. At the second celebration at 10:30 the Bishop administered the Apostolic Rite of Confirmation and preached a very strong sermon from 1 Cor 11:14, showing in a convincing way how and why the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God because they are spiritually discerned.

He was greeted by an intelligent, rather than a large congregation, upon whom he made a deep impression. A large number received the Holy Eucharist and the choir sang delightfully.

The only thing that detracted from a most beautiful and inspiring service was the absence, on account of sickness of the Rev. G. W. Dunbar.

At Trinity Church

An immense congregation, many of whom could only find standing room greeted Bishop Nicholson at his visitation to Trinity church on last evening. Three hours of service was sung by the choir and the Rev. A. H. Barrington of Christ church read the lessons.

After administering the Sacrament of Confirmation to a class presented by the rector, the Bishop preached upon the immortality of the body, a sermon most strong in doctrinal statement; full of illustration and tender in its application. (Text: 2 Cor. V. 4.)

Mr. Wm. Garbutt sang the offertory solo and the large vested choir rendered the music of the service. Bishop Nicholson remained with the Rector of Trinity church until 1:40 when he took the train for Madison.

Tests His Automobile

Its action is almost noiseless and it has a speed of from 4 to 20 miles an hour. Four gallons of gasoline are sufficient to run it a hundred miles without refilling.

TELLER PLANS TAX ON BUTTER TRUSTS

Deals a Blow at the Combination That Fixes Price of Genuine Article.

FULL AND FREE COMPETITION

Colorado Senate Amends to Oleomargarine Bill in Which Monopoly Is Declared and Tax of 10 Per Cent Levied.

Washington, April 28.—Senator Teller says that butter has recently advanced 4 cents a pound, and he does not believe the farmer is getting any of the advance. He also charges that the combination that controls the price of butter controls the price of beef. The Colorado senator aimed a dart at trusts when the bill imposing a tax of 10 per cent on oleomargarine came over from the house by offering the following amendment:

"That every agreement, contract or combination between persons or corporations which has for the object and purpose, in whole or in part, the creation of a monopoly in butter, or which tends to create a monopoly by preventing full and free competition in the importation, manufacture or transportation of butter, or which shall have for its object and purpose the advancing of the cost of butter to the consumers, is hereby declared to be a trust, and there shall be levied and collected annually, upon the capital and assets, and also upon the products of every such butter trust as defined by this section, a tax of 10 per cent and no drawback for such taxes when they have been paid shall be allowed for exports. All the provisions of law in reference to internal revenue taxes, so far as the same are applicable shall apply to this tax and to the persons, partnerships, corporations, trusts and combinations upon which it is imposed."

Upon objection consideration of the bill went over. Senator Teller said: "The oleomargarine bill is merely a measure to increase the price of butter 10 cents a pound by removing the competition of oleomargarine. If the farmers were to get this increase I would not have so much objection, but it will all go into the pockets of the men who have been putting up the price of beef and eggs."

ELKINS PROUD OF WAR RECORD

West Virginia Senator Proposes to Offer Proof of His Service.

Washington, April 28.—Senator "Steve" Elkins of West Virginia proposes to offer official proof of an episode in his life which had a most romantic character. Certain Grand Army men of his state having charged that the senator had no war record, and was therefore not entitled to be a member of the G. A. R., Mr. Elkins has gone on the warpath in defense of his record. Already he has received word from the auditor of the war department telling of the record of his enrollment in the Missouri militia, and later in the regular service, and of his service as captain in Missouri during 1862-63, chiefly against Quantrell and his guerrillas. Senator Elkins said regarding the matter:

"It was asserted several years ago that I was a deserter from the army. Later that I never belonged to the army, and at another time that I was a member of the Quantrell guerrillas. All of these statements it will be very easy to disprove in a very short time, and I propose to do it. The truth of the matter is, I was captured at one time by Quantrell during one of the engagements of my company with him. I would have been shot, and curiously enough, Cole Younger was the man who saved my life. He persuaded Quantrell to give me my liberty. Once after that I was able to perform the same service for Younger."

Old-Time Fiddler Stirr 'Em Up

Washington, April 28.—Several features of Secretary Long's farewell dinner on board the Dolphin are just coming to light. It is said that there was an old-time fiddler present and that the dignified cabinet officers forgot their dignity for the time and "shuffled a foot." According to rumors, Knox was sprightly, Hay dignified, Shaw brisk and Wilson the heaviest of all.

During the dance the president is said to have remarked to the secretary of agriculture: "Get up, you old corn-stalk."

After that, according to reports, there was an exhibition of skill at the foils between two sailors. A scratch on the cheek brought blood and the contest closed. Then two other husky sailors put on the gloves and sparring a round or two for the president and cabinet members.

Senate Exclusion Conference

Washington, April 28.—In the senate Mr. Platt (Conn.) presented a conference report on the Chinese exclusion bill asking that the senate disagree to the report and insist upon a further conference. He explained that the only point of difference between the conferees of the senate and the house was that the house conferees asked the senate conferees to eliminate from the substitute passed by the senate that portion which provides that the present Chinese exclusion law be extended through the life of the present treaty and remain in force until another treaty shall have been negotiated. The motion that the senate insist upon its amendment and agree to another conference was agreed to. Messrs. Platt (Conn.), Dillingham (Vt.) and Clay (Ga.) were named as conferees on the part of the senate.

THREE LIVES LOST IN SINKING SHIP

Captain Parry, His Wife and Son Go Down with the Barkalow.

CAUSED BY A SEVERE STORM

Lone Survivor Taken from the Rigging, Where He Had Fallen Asleep by the Life-Saving Crew of the Marblehead Station.

Put-in-Bay, O., April 28.—In the furious gale which raged on Lake Erie Saturday the schooner M. P. Barkalow, laden with salt, went to the bottom a short distance west of here, carrying down with her Captain Richard Parry, his wife, and son.

Dick Burke, one of the seamen, who had been clinging to the rigging since early Saturday afternoon, was rescued at 3 o'clock Sunday morning by the life-saving crew from the Marblehead station and the tug John E. Monk of Sandusky.

According to Burke's story, when the boat seemed hopelessly in the power of the storm, the party got into the rigging, the captain, his wife, and Morris on the lee side of the boat. The boat soon filled with water and fell over to the lee side, throwing the three persons into the water.

Burke retained his position in the rigging, having fallen asleep from exhaustion, and was thus found by the life-saving crew. The body of Mrs. Parry was washed ashore.

The Barkalow came to anchor Friday and could be seen flying signals of distress Saturday, but tugs could not go to her assistance on account of the storm. The Barkalow was registered 121 tons and was owned by A. V. Kirschner of Detroit.

Pretoria Fast in the Sand

Ashtabula, O., April 28.—The schooner Pretoria, which went ashore east of the piers Saturday while trying to enter the harbor, is fast in the sand and full of water. The crew of seven men has been taken off the boat. It is believed the hull of the vessel is in good shape. Steam pumps will be put to work and the ore cargo lightered so that she can be released.

American Run Ashore

Some Farm Notes.

The man who tested his seed corn will have fewer regrets than the man who failed to do this. One will always wish he had tested in case of a poor stand and the other will have no regrets that he did. Test the seed now and be sure and look over the seed carefully. Give every doubtful ear the benefit of the doubt and throw it out.

There is such a difference in soil. Some men do not care to soil their hands nor their clothes and yet they expect the soil to do what unsifted hands will not do. Sifted hands and worn overalls quite often mean a productive soil.

A friend of mine writes me that he is at a loss to know what the Teeswater breed of cattle are. In their early history Short-horn cattle were known as Teeswater, so named after the locality of their origin on the banks of the river Tees in England. The name has long been obsolete. Durham cattle was a name used later, but now this breed is almost universally called Short horns on both sides of the water.

A jug is indispensable on a farm and it should always be filled with fresh water from the well before going afield.

When I was twenty-five years old I could jump astride the tallest horse from the ground. I could ride standing on the horse's back and cut many a monkey shine learned after once attending a circus. Now when I want to get on a horse I lead it up to the fence or near some other object than can be made an object in putting me up in the world high enough to get on the horse with ease.

How is the collar fitting Bill's shoulders? Remember when Bill is not at work on account of a sore shoulder it is a dollar bill for every day he is out.

There are instances on record where a hole in the roof that might have been fixed with a half dozen shingles has been the cause of the loss of a ton of hay.

In planting any slow growing seeds like the beet or the watermelon where it is necessary to locate the hills soon after planting just place a few radish seeds in each hill. The radishes will soon germinate and some up and will locate the hills should one have a desire to cultivate the rows before the other plants are up. Some claim radish seeds will fool the little bug that is so fond of melon vines, but this is fishy. Radishes may be depended upon as a locator of hills and rows and that is about the extent of the business.

If there were one-half the demand for the manure spreader that there is for the harrow, the price would be greatly reduced for that implement and there would be one of them on every farm. I never worked with a tool in my life that gave me as much satisfaction as I have with a manure spreader hired from a neighbor.

PRACTICAL POINTS

Things Worth the Attention of Publisher and Advertiser. Assemblyman W. S. Melick is an editor who has won prominence in this state, says the Bloomington (Ill.) Pantograph, because he has ideas. He thinks things and knows how to tell others of the things he thinks, which has made him a marked man in the newspaper craft. Here are some of them on the general subject of advertising:

"In the first place, a newspaper is not a philanthropic institution. It is bread and butter and sometimes molasses to its proprietor.

"Its space is its life. That space should be given either to publish the news and editorial opinions or to be up for sale to those who have business to promote and want others to know it.

"The newspaper which lets others use it to grind their axes gets away its own bread and butter.

"Notices of the entertainments, announcements that do not enrich any one and resolutions of a public nature may be and usually are news items and are published free, but notices of entertainments for which a fee is charged or announcements which promote the interest of a person or set and resolutions which simply gratify an individual or lodge or church or any other set ought to be paid for when published.

"If an advertiser using a paper which goes into homes does not get results, it is because the readers are not buying what is offered or else the ad. itself does not offer the inducement. Carelessly worded ads. are stale and are an abomination.

"We warrant that enough money is wasted each year in advertising on circulars, programs, pamphlets, reports, etc., to build the Nicaragua canal."

It fills the arteries with rich, red blood, makes new flesh, makes sick people well. That's what Rocky Mountain Tea will do. 35c. Smith's Pharmacy.

The Man Behind The Meat Ax. Oh we've heard on awful lot about the man behind the gun. And how, without his services the country couldn't run. And we've also talked a little of the man behind the hoe. And the man behind the counter and the man behind the show. There's the man behind the pulpit and the man behind the bar. And the man behind the shovel and the cop behind the star. And the man behind the footlights, and of course we have a sad. But a vivid recollection of the man behind the gad. There's the man behind the combine never feel that I was able to own one. If a bull is half the herd (and he is) he should be the lesser (?) half if there is such a thing) if he is a scrub. A scrub bull and a cross bull should find their way to the cannery before they do injury.

I see a great many new implements that are built on new principles and yet believe that manufacturers are short of the real information along some lines or they would change to principles that would help the farmer as well as help sell the machine. Some seeders I have observed are not worth hauling home.

A dull disc is an abomination; a sharp one is a joy forever. There are so many reasons why a disc should be kept sharp that even a dull man can see why. The fact is that there is really no good reason why one ought to keep and work a dull disc. We have a homemade disc sharpener that does as well as the most elaborate device I ever saw.

One of the common causes of failure in potatoes is the planting of poor seed. This is not generally realized at a time like this year when there is a greater liability to use poor seed than at any other time. If the soil is rich and the season favorable, poor seed will answer better than where the opposite conditions exist. In a case of this kind the field is good in spite of the seed. When the results are thus the grower infers that poor seed is as good as any, but in bad years it is certain to be a failure.

One of the features on the farm that has not had attached to it enough importance is that of giving the cows that care they should have. On grass. So many cows are turned on grass, and if there is enough grass all well and good and if the grass turns up under a summer's sun the cows are supposed to go along and give just as much and just as good milk as when the grass is abundant. Cows can be fed grain and other feeds while on grass to advantage, and we all want to know the experience of those who have been most successful along this line. We have no special writers on this subject.

Next to a balky horse or a kicking cow a stalk field is being put to oats with the stalk left on is about as much temptation to use profane language as anything else I have in mind just now. When a man is trying to feed a stubborn calf that has not yet learned to drink, he has his fun and is soon over it, but in cultivating oats one has the wrestling of stalks all day long and is as tired at night as he cares to be. I like to have the stalks off the ground and no mistake.

Use the cultivator when it is too wet to use the disc, in putting in spring rain, and use the disc when it is dry enough to work well. The disc is the better tool with which to put in spring grain as the conditions are favorable for its doing good work. Wisconsin Farmer.

and the man behind the pool. And the foolish individual, the man behind the mule. And the man behind the project and the man behind the loan. And the man behind the party and the man behind the throne. And the man behind the railroad is a gay aristocrat. While just now we are all shouting for the man behind the bat. The man behind the throttle and that hero grand and fine. The tall and handsome college man who plays behind the line. But what's the use of naming them, they are all poor and mean. Beside another champion who's come upon the scene. For of all the men who are behind in any shape or way. The man behind the meat ax, is the man who counts today. —Council Bluffs Nonpareil.

Practical Education. Orson Cochran went to Pittsboro on Wednesday of this week, and will be absent from home for several days, filling his engagements in piano tuning, at that place and Dexterville. He has the reputation of being painstaking, honest and diligent, as well as thoroughly educated and competent not only at his trade, but generally. He is a graduate of the school for the blind at Janesville, where he studied eight years. During the last four years of his school work, an hour each day was devoted entirely to work on pianos, taking apart, putting together, tuning, repairing, etc. Mr. Cochran is under contract with the board of education of this city to look after all the pianos in use in the schools here. He is also largely employed by resident piano owners, and gives general satisfaction. —Grand Rapids Tribune.

Mr. Cochran possesses musical talent and he had the good fortune to take up a profession that is well adapted to men who are totally or partially blind. The State School has turned out quite a number of good tuners, who have won success and are self-supporting citizens. Professor Hursey, the instructor, is recognized as a first class teacher and a good workman. He has in his class fourteen young men, who are being thoroughly prepared for the work of life. Mr. Cochran's friends will be pleased to learn of the success that is coming to him.

Fear Land War in Kansas. Atwood, Kan., April 28.—Rauchmen and settlers are alarmed, and trouble, it is feared, will come as a result of a quarrel over land in Rawlins and adjoining counties. It may be necessary to call on the state troops to prevent bloodshed.

A PICTURE

Of health, we say of a perfectly healthy woman, and it is a picture everyone loves to look upon. All the pictures of all the artists who have ever painted the glory and beauty of womanhood, are only copies and imitations of this picture.

Never artist mixed a color on his palette that can vie with the hues which tint a healthful woman's cheek. Why should this charm be sacrificed to sickness? It need not be saved in rare cases. The general health of woman is so linked with the local womanly health that wasted cheek and sunken eye are in general but evidences of womanly diseases. Cure the diseases and the physical health is restored.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures the ills of women. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness.

Mrs. Mary E. Lewis, of Tanner, Gilmer Co., W. Va., writes: "I shall always recommend Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Golden Medical Discovery and 'Pleasant Pellets' for they cured me when doctors and other medicines failed. For fifteen years I suffered untold misery. When I commenced taking Dr. Pierce's medicines, I had given up all hope of ever getting well. I could not lie down to sleep, and everything I ate would almost crush me to death. Was very nervous and could hardly walk across the room. I only weighed ninety pounds when I commenced taking these medicines six years ago; now I weigh one hundred and forty pounds and am having better health than ever before. My friends all say they can hardly believe that I am the same person; after being sick so long I am changed to be robust and ruddy checked."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate stomach, liver and bowels.

TRUE ART

is displayed as fully in the carvings on Pianos as in painting or sculpture. Notably fine specimens of such work may be seen in ours. And they're not only artistic in design and workmanship, but also perfect in tone and finish. The Lester Pianos, square and upright, are without an equal for elegance and excellence. Guaranteed with every one. Remarkably low priced, too, for such instruments. Cash or installments. Easy terms.

Soldiers' Appetites Good.
It does not appear that the transference of the American soldier to a tropical climate has injured his appetite. He eats no less than he did at home, he needs as hearty a diet, and he is teaching the Filipino to eat more. Gen. Weston says of the latter: "He is learning to eat and is doing it first rate and he has improved physically. We have the assurance from the doctors over there that by our feeding they have less disease and are heartier men."

British Title for Cash.
A London firm of solicitors has received a letter in which the sender, described as "an English peer of old title," expresses his desire to marry a wealthy lady, "age and looks, immaterial, but character irreproachable, and in exchange for the rank he is to be paid £25,000 in cash."

Considerate of the Thief.
The following advertisement recently appeared in a London paper: "Milk—if the individual who stole the milk off my doorstep this morning will be good enough to knock at the door on the occasion of his next professional visit I'll give him a drop of rum to put in it. Milk taken neat on cold mornings and an empty stomach is likely to injure the internal economy of outdoor workers. Address, etc."
